

Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVENING, DEC. 13, 1909.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:11 and sets at 4:39. High water at 8:54 a. m. and 9:01 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section rain and warmer tonight. Tuesday rain or snow and colder; brisk south, else to southwest winds.

YESTERDAY.

The weather yesterday was raw, cloudy and threatening and the congregations at many of the churches were not as large as usual. At the M. E. Church South Rev. F. J. Prettyman, D. D., the presiding elder of this district, preached at the evening service. The morning service at Trinity Church was conducted by Rev. W. R. Samwell, D. D., and the evening services by Rev. Mr. Allen. Rev. W. E. Luskford, who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Second Baptist Church, this city, and the Del Ray Baptist Church, assumed his new duties, preaching in this city in the morning and at Del Ray in the evening. At the Young People's building at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. W. E. Andrews, an auditor of the Treasury Department, Washington, delivered an interesting address on "Leadership." The streets presented a deserted appearance all day, the chilly and cloudy weather keeping many people in doors.

ROBBERIES.

A freight car which was on the track of the Washington and Ohio Railroad a short distance north of the depot was entered Saturday night by thieves and robbed of a lot of hoisery. Thieves on Saturday night went aboard an oyster boat lying in a dock between King and Prince streets and carried away as many of the bivalves as they wanted for an adjacent to their Sunday dinner. A coop of chickens was stolen last Saturday night from the front of Mr. James Belden's store, southeast corner of Wolfe and Lee streets.

Thieves blew open the safe of the Independent Oil Company at Rosslyn, Alexandria county, on Friday and secured $100.

WANTS MACHODOO CREEK DREDGED.

Attorney Thomas S. Hunter, of King George, passed through the city Saturday en route for Washington where he will argue the claim of the wharf holders along the upper Machodoo creek before the board of engineers of rivers and harbors. The wharf holders are endeavoring to obtain an appropriation to dredge the creek and the work was recommended by the engineers who made soundings, but it is reported that the board will turn down the recommendations. In view of this fact the wharf owners employed Mr. Hunter to press their claims.

A DARKEY FRAUD. The aged negro who came to Alexandria early last Saturday morning and told a pitiful story of having been robbed of a stock of turkeys, together with his horse and wagon, and who was thought to be weak-minded, is now believed to be more of a knave than a fool. It is said that he worked the confidence game successfully in Washington where he obtained money from sympathetic people who believed all he told them concerning the alleged killing of his daughter by an automobile and the illness and poverty of his wife. The police are on the lookout for the negro.

OPERA HOUSE.

Ray Johnson promises four thrilling acts and nine stirring scenes with climaxes and hold-ups galore in "The James Boys," which opens at the Opera House tonight for a three days' run. It is a truthful portrayal of the exciting life of the James boys.

TAKEN TO THE PENITENTIARY. Guard S. T. Smith, of the Richmond penitentiary, arrived in this city this morning, and proceeding to the jail took charge of Harry Sims and John Williams, white, who are to serve terms for unbecomely conduct, and Louis Connor, white, and Joseph Dudley and James Johnson, colored, who were recently sentenced to serve terms in the penitentiary for the unlawful sale of cocaine. The guard left this afternoon with his prisoners for Richmond.

REPORTED HOLDUP.

A boy went to the station house on Saturday night and told the police that his uncle had been held up and robbed of $20 near the intersection of Wolfe and Lee streets a short time before. The boy did not give the name of the victim and the officers failed to find out the particulars, as the man said to have been relieved of his money did not put in his appearance.

CASE CONTINUED.

A difficulty occurred last Saturday night between Andrew Jackson and Jack Lee, both colored, during which Lee was cut on the breast and Jackson on the head and hand. Both were arrested by Officers Sampson and Arrington, and Jackson was brought before the Police Court this morning. Lee, however, was unable to be present, and the case was continued until next Thursday morning.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

Samuel (alias "Dink") Dudley who has been dodging the police since the 25th day of September, was arrested last night by Officers Rawlett and Bell. Dudley was charged with assaulting Laura Savage, colored, with a fistiron. He was arranged in the Police Court this morning, when Justice Catron fined him $10.

THE WEATHER.

The weather was raw and threatening all during yesterday with light "pitter" of snow early in the morning. Early in the night sleet fell which soon turned into rain, which has continued since. More rain has fallen during last night and today than for several months past. The mercury at noon registered 49°.

The Linder Shoe for Ladies fine wear has no equal, John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

Special 75c Palmers for 32c and 49c during the holidays at the Kramer Floral Co., 822 King street.

Going to have turkey for Christmas? Certainly! What would Xmas be without a good old turkey to eat? I would be worse than a Fourth of July celebration without the Declaration of Independence being read. And talking about turkeys we want to say right now that the Auth Market, at the northwest corner of King and Alfred streets, will have as fine an assortment of live and dressed turkey gobblers and hens as you'd want to lay your two eyes on. This is only a starter. We'll say more about our turkeys later on. Sylvan Blochheim, the Auth Stand and the Auth Market.

A narrow minded party once said to Mr. Einstein: "This talk about the Auth Products being better than the other kinds is all rot. Meat is meat and that's all." To this Mr. Einstein replied: "Say mister, believe me, you need to take something for diet. In a minute you'll be saying dot a cent is as good as a dollar because it's money. Drove you as much difference between the Auth Products and the cheaper kinds there in between duck and beef and tenderloin.
